The entire day was consumed in ar-

Attorney Worden, who has been Lam-plea for his client and State's Attor-

The greatest stress was laid on the

The Apollo's Human Touch

THE TOUCH of the Apollo player piano is familiarly spoken of by musicians as "human" and "natural." It is universally conceded that of all players offered for sale the Apollo is the only one that delivers the stroke on the piano keys just as the human hand would.

The pneumatic fingers hit the piano key directly on top, just as any pianist would play. This gives the human stroke, and human touch and expression are the result.

This explains why there is nothing mechanical about the Apollo's playing. Hear the Apollo played by a novice in another room, and for the life of you, you cannot say the playing is not that of a skilled pianist playing by hand.

The Apollo method is protected by patents and can be found only in the Apollo player piano.

The Apollo plays 88 notes—the entire keyboard of the piano—but costs no more than others which play only 65 notes.

Friday we will give away absolutely free one Cabinet Apollo Player Piano. Come early and get further information about this offer.

a $20,000,000 syndicate will take control which the Hines company, either in Nervous Collapse.

Open House at Y.M.C.A.
The Young Men's Christian Association will hold open-house this evening in the lobby, to which a general invitation is extended. There will be a musical and literary program, popcorn around the fire, and light refreshments will be served. An interesting program of magic will also be given by Prof. De La Gonnate.

Discriminating Burglars.
Burglars entered the grocery store of Mrs. J. J. Hunt, No. 459 South Workman street, early Wednesday morning, and took a quantity of choice articles, to be used for Thanksgiving dinner. Select oysters, cranberry jelly, sage and sweetbreads comprised the loot. The money drawer was untouched, and contained several dollars, but the intruders did not touch it.

Close Call.
While under the influence of liquor last night, D. Lafont, a staidman, hipped up three horses in the wrong stable, and narrowly escaped arrest for grand larceny. He works at the Ascot stables, Second and Los Angeles streets. They are owned by Snowden Brothers, who also own a stable at No. 405 Aliso street. It was in the latter stable that Lafont was caught. After he had explained, the desk sergeant booked him on a charge of intoxication.

Tunnel Completed by First.
Today the laborers driving the tunnel between Sunset boulevard and Temple street will lay off for Thanksgiving, and this will delay the completion of the work one day. The brick work will be completed by Saturday night and only the masonry work out of the tunnel remains to be finished. About 150 feet of dirt at the Temple street entrance is yet to be taken out, but this is being accomplished very fast and the tunnel will be completed by the first of December.

Will Join in Honors.
The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce will join in a reception and entertainment to be given the men and officers of the Fresno today. The party will reach local waters during the first week in December. An invitation to view the Pasadena Tournament of Roses, New Year's Day was accepted. The following were appointed on a committee of entertainment on the occasion of the visit of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, December 16: Willis Booth, chairman; F. W. Braun, Charles Blair, Louis M. Cole and W. P. Jeffries.

Report on Japan Trip.
A. P. Griffith and A. C. Bullock, gave the interesting account of their recent trip to Japan, at yesterday's Chamber of Commerce directors' meeting. They represented the local Chamber on the Commission to Japan, composed of delegates from all Pacific Coast commercial organizations. The directors will arrange for public meetings soon, when Messrs. Bullock and Griffith will give a more extended account of their observations. A beautiful souvenir box, presented by Japanese commercial organizations, was formally turned over to the chamber by Mr. Bullock.

Girls Lost Half Hour.
For just thirty minutes yesterday afternoon the police were searching the city in an effort to locate Pearl and Ruby Mosley, 18 and 19 years of age, respectively, who left their father's home to go to the shopping district. The small family recently arrived from Arizona, and the father built a residence in a new subdivision. There is no number on the house, and the street has not been named, so the young women could give no directions as to where they live. They wandered looking for their home until they lost their way. The police were notified, and they took up the search for the girls, who finally found their way back.

Improvement Federation.
At a meeting of representatives of a number of the improvement associations of the city last night at the rooms of the Brooklyn Heights Association, Anderson and Aliso streets, an organization entitled the United Improvement Federation of Los Angeles was formed, with the following officers: President, C. H. Clayton, of the Brooklyn Heights Association; secretary, W. H. O'Connell of the South Side Improvement Association; treasurer, J. M. Flower of the Ninth Ward Association. Each improvement association in the city is expected to name a vice-president. A joint meeting of the various associations will be held in two weeks, when proposed charter amendments will be discussed.

NEW EXPLOSIVE TESTED.
Local Powder Company Gives Demonstration to Prove Its Product is Safe to Handle.

In the presence of more than 100 property owners and powder experts, officials of the United States Powder Company of Los Angeles gave a demonstration to prove the safety of their explosive, in Miller's Canyon, near Hollywood, yesterday morning. Supervisors Eldridge and Alexander represented the county authorities. The property owners of the vicinity have entered a protest against the installation of a mill in the canyon. The two compounds from which the powder is made were produced yesterday morning and thrown into the fire. They did not explode; the fire did little more than scorch them.

Then the same stick of powder was taken out, fitted with a percussion cap and exploded, blowing up a mass of earth and rock. M. Comiskey, who has been with the Du Pont Powder Company for many years, made several tests. He announced that the powder was the only safe explosive he had ever seen.

EXPIATION.
FEDERAL CELL FOR MULHALL.
FORMER VENETIAN SENTENCED ON FRAUD CHARGE.

One-Time Part Proprietor of Ship Hotel Must Spend Fifteen Months in Government Prison on Conviction of Wrongful Use of the Mails.

James Mulhall, formerly part proprietor of the Ship Hotel at Venice, and who was referred to in many parts of the Middle West as the "king of produce thieves," has begun a fifteen months' sentence at the Federal prison in Leavenworth, Kan., upon conviction of fraudulently using the mails. He was convicted recently in the United States District Court at Minneapolis, Minn., and was refused stay of sentence.

Mulhall operated in different parts of the country for many years, and until the Federal authorities located him at Venice, he had successfully evaded pursuit.

His scheme, as outlined at his trial, was to open a bogus commission house and, after receiving a lot of produce, to send it to a "fence" in Chicago and let the local "thugs" defraud those who had trusted him.

Government officials state that Mulhall had been prosecuted for more than a dozen of frauds, after his sentence expires, if it is deemed advisable.

His last venture was in Minneapolis, where he established a concern known as the Nicollet Creamery Company. According to the evidence, he secured over $10,000 worth of produce from farmers and then closed up his establishment, without settling with his creditors.

Postal authorities got on his trail several years ago. He went under numerous aliases and never remained long in one place. He was in the habit of sending out circular letters to farmers, who were to be located one of his commission offices in a city, and it was upon these letters that he was convicted of using the mails for fraudulent purposes.

Before leaving this city in custody of "Big Game" Marlett, Youngworth Mulhall, who had gained a foothold here through his connection with the ship hotel, gave The Times a rambling statement in which he asserted his innocence and said that he would soon be back in Los Angeles to start his business. He asserted that the postal inspectors were his personal enemies and were trying to hold him responsible for the acts of his former associates.

NEWPORT.
NEWPORT, Nov. 25.—J. F. Palmer, a well-known fisherman, left day before yesterday for Sonoma, Mex., where he will make his home.

Mrs. J. Hayes returned today after a week's visit with Long Beach friends.

Senator John Anderson got a ducking a few days ago, as a result of trying to walk the pipe line to the dredges. All he said when he pulled himself out of the channel, was to the effect that the dredger had done good work—the channel was plenty deep enough.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 26, 1938.

COUNTRY LIFE HAS NO PROBLEMS HERE.

Federal Commissioners Appointed by President to Study Rural Conditions Find Southern California Blessed With All Conveniences.

A THREE-HOUR session of the Federal Country Life Commission, last night, failed to develop any rural conditions in Southern California that need change. The beautiful country homes, with all city conveniences, were ably described by some of the speakers who addressed the commissioners. Others told of the rapid transit system of electric railroads that bring city and country into quick communication. The ability to work out of doors throughout the year, the variety of crops, the standing of ranchmen in their communities—all these questions were enlarged upon, until the commissioners seemed convinced that this section has no problem to be solved by Federal officials. It was intimated that Southern California will stand as an ideal to other country sections, but those present were warned that it is not within the power or scope of the commission to advise wholesale immigration to Los Angeles county and the rest of the State south of the Tehachepi.

The session of the Commissioners was held at the Chamber of Commerce. Prof. L. H. Bailey, the chairman, after hearing the statements as to conditions here, humorously remarked that he would be pleased to hear the remedies for various drawbacks in rural life, other than a wholesale removal to this section.

The two topics discussed at length were those relating to rural schools and the labor problem. Transportation and other subjects were touched upon. No general debate was reached. Fifty representative business men, ranchers, teachers, physicians, horticulturists and railroad officials were present. The local Committee of Arrangements included: F. Q. Story, chairman; C. B. Booth, E. A. Meserve and Dr. Chambers. After the members of the commission and their associates had been introduced to a number of prominent members of the Chamber of Commerce, Chairman Bailey opened the session by recommending to President Roosevelt certain things, as the result of their investigation.

He said it appeared to the President that country life interests had not received the Federal attention that corporate and syndicate interests had. Economic, sanitary and industrial questions are being handled by the commission, he said, and data is being gathered for the guidance of the President in a future message to Congress.

WHAT ARE CONDITIONS?
"We didn't come here to see things," continued the chairman. "We would like to visit points of interest and be your guests, but time does not permit. We are holding as many meetings as possible in the limited time we have, and aim to cover the greater part of the country before our duties terminate."

Our principal question is whether country life conditions here are as good as might be. If they are, you can give us some good advice how to better conditions in other sections. It must be understood that we cannot solve the problem by sending people out here. [Laughter and applause.]

Secretary Wiggins of the Chamber of Commerce said in a loud stage aside that, as the hearing progressed, the commissioners would find ideal conditions prevailing in this section. The subject first discussed was the rural school system.

The discussion was prolonged by City Superintendent of Schools E. C. Moore, who gave a long rambling talk on city schools and what might be accomplished if his ideas prevailed. The commissioners appeared bored and others present yawned into a listless mood, from which they were aroused when the clever chairman gained an opportunity to switch the discussion to German issues.

Other speakers briefly mentioned projected changes in country conditions here as a whole. They said that will give youth an opportunity for a study of agriculture in its scientific phases.

WHY WERE HERE?
Prof. F. J. Wickson, director of the College of Agriculture at Berkeley, read an excellent paper that touched on reasons why California had gone ahead of other States in its country life.

He said that the pioneers brought courage and determination with them and that their descendants had acquired with them the same qualities. He said that the influx of easterners had been of the best, and that here a man was looked down upon because he was a farmer.

Prof. Wickson stated that California already is teaching agriculture. He said that high schools devoted to that subject are to be established in different sections. Country property is in good demand, he said, and the fruit districts are like suburban homes.

Mark Keppel, County Superintendent of Schools, said the rural schools of this section are far ahead of those in eastern communities; that the time is soon coming when sewing and cooking will be taught the girls, and that the boys will be instructed in various handicrafts.

AT CHURCHES TODAY.

Many Congregations Will Join in Services at Torrey Tabernacle.

Other Special Meetings.
A few churches of the city will follow their usual custom of holding Thanksgiving services today, but those affiliated with the Church Federation will unite in the services at the Torrey Tabernacle, at 10:30 o'clock a.m., and at 3 and 7:30 o'clock p.m. "The Radiant Life," will be Dr. Torrey's morning subject; afternoon: "How to Study the Bible;" evening: "What Are You Waiting For?"

At St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral, Rev. William MacCormack will preach at 10:30 o'clock this morning, on the subject: "Last We Forget." The choir will sing Kipling's "Recessional."

At the First Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene, Rev. Dr. E. F. Walker of Pasadena will preach at the morning hour.

At the Pico Heights Congregational Church, Rev. J. M. Schaeff will preach at 11 o'clock on "A Grateful Nation." Rev. A. E. Gants of Highland Park will preach.

At the Union Rescue Mission, No. 145 North Main street, preparations are made to give a Thanksgiving dinner to 1000 "down and out." In the evening, Rev. A. E. Gants of Highland Park will preach.

The Volunteers of America will pool a large number of baskets to poor families, each containing a day's supplies of Thanksgiving dinner, and the same plan will be followed by Bethlehem Institution. No dinners will be served at either place. The Salvation Army sent out their baskets yesterday.

DOWN COME RAIN DROPS.

Up Will Come Bumper Crops in the Spring.

Snow on Mountains, Blossoms in the Valleys.

Welcome Storm Is Gentle in Its Showering.

Holiday makers and football enthusiasts may frown as darkly as the lowering clouds through the mist of the falling rain, but generally along the coast line Southern California thousands are rejoicing over every drop which swells the musical chorus of the patterning prosperity pellets. From all parts of Los Angeles county and many sections of the southern part of the State are coming happy messages of welcome, with added words of welcome in view of the good crops which seem to be assured.

The storm swooped down from the north with a veil on its face. No majestic billows of clouds marked its advent, it just spread out like a wet blanket and then suddenly leaked.

Tourists wore rubbers and carried umbrellas all day yesterday, but a lot of native sons and daughters got dampened when the first rain came down about 8 o'clock last evening in Los Angeles.

Up to the time when the first drops fell in Los Angeles county the rainfall here was within a fraction of 25 per cent. below the normal, which is two inches at this time of the year, the exact figures for this season being 1.59 inches.

Everywhere ranchers have been anxiously scanning the skies for sign of the welcome rain and when last week there appeared to be a prospect of a good soaking they got out their plows and harrows and got all ready to put in a crop. Next day it was clear. But the drizzle which did drift down, light as it was, did a lot of good, for it softened the top crust of hard-baked earth so that this last rain has a good chance to soak into the ground instead of running off in streams cutting miniature gullies.

FUNNY, BUT FINE.
And yet in many respects this was a strange sort of a rainfall. It appeared last night to be especially in sympathy with the ocean and like a recent sky-high balloon it refuses to cross the mountains. In effect the messages at midnight indicate that the storm is west of the Sierra Madre range and that the rainfall is only heavy along the Coast.

Santa Barbara was the first section of Southern California to get the full force of the storm. It struck the Channel City about 3 o'clock and from the Southeast, too, strange to say, probably curling around in a crook-like shape when it first struck the mountains from the North.

About 5 o'clock it was blowing half a gale in the channel and half an inch of rain had fallen in Santa Barbara. All the evening it fell and toward morning it became a steady drizzle. A month earlier than expected. In fact the ranchers are all smiles and predict that this rain will make all the difference in the world to the bumper crops now looked forward to.

Shortly after midnight this morning a telephone message from San Diego was to the effect that only a slight drizzle had fallen there last evening.

California del Sur.

CITY AND COUNTRY

On All News Stands: 5 CENTS.

but the indications were that there would be plenty of rain today. From the back country districts of San Diego county no reports were made, but it is probable that in the northern part of the county the rain as well as those across the line in Los Angeles and Orange counties.

REAL SNOW, TOO.
It was a peculiar feature of the storm which confined its benefits to the coast line so closely and at 12:15 o'clock this morning at San Bernardino there had been no rain nor snow. But the mountains above Pasadena are wearing caps this morning, white and freshly touched, apparently. Down in the valleys, however, the scent of the orange blossoms is particularly strong and the hills of the valley and violets are blooming with added freshness for having their faces washed.

At Alpine Tavern on Mt. Lowe, the rain turned to snow about 9 o'clock last night and at midnight was still coming down heavily, while at 11 o'clock it had appeared to Californians as though a real blizzard was in progress and it was actually below the freezing point. A whole lot of "sids" can have the privilege on this Thanksgiving Day of proceeding to Mt. Lowe and having a real snow-ball fight for the first time in their lives.

The rain softened up about 1 o'clock this morning at which time the total rainfall for the season had passed the normal with a fall for the night of slightly over half an inch. From this section has there come any news of damage of any kind from the rain.

As for the Weather Bureau it promised a diversity of weather for the State, it prognosticates: "Thanksgiving Day promises to be fair north of San Francisco and cloudy, with rain in the South."

An extra word from the official forecast is that the rainfall in Southern California will be "generous." Let 'er ripple!

LONG CHANCE.
CASTRO LUCKY IF HE HOLDS ON.
FORMER VENEZUELAN, NOW HERE, HAS GRAVE DOUBTS.

Signer Buzal Says President of South American Republic Will Accomplish Wonder Should He Be Able to Retain Reins of Government After Absence from Country.

"If President Castro of Venezuela, who left for France on Monday, can return to his country, after being operated upon without finding that some one has usurped his power, he will have accomplished a feat worthy of mention in the annals of history. He never has a ruler of that turbulent republic been able to leave its boundaries, without finding himself thrust out of power." So speaks Signor Pietro Buzal, of Los Angeles, former Minister of the Interior of Venezuela.

"There have always been plenty of aspirants to the office of President in Venezuela," says Buzal, "but not many of them have had sufficient strategy to overthrow their predecessors while they were in command. In almost every case, the aspirant has waited until some cause arose which necessitated the President's absence, and then he swept into power by the high tide of a revolution."

"Gustavo Blanco, who received the title of Illustrado Americano, because of the excellent administration he gave to his country, retired in 1930, when he became tired of the ingratitude of his countrymen, who called him a despot. When he decided to abdicate, he nominated Juan Pablo Rojas Paul and this went to Paris, to represent his country."

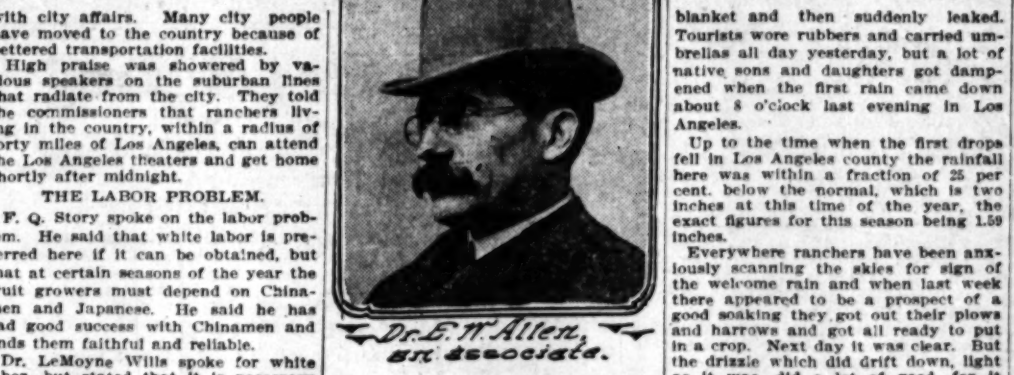

"After a few months, Rojas Paul permitted a 'specific revolution,' in which all the monuments which Blanco had erected were destroyed. The old ex-President threatened from Paris with telegrams, but in the end the matter dropped and was so disgusted that he never returned to Venezuela. His great palace in Caracas was neglected by his family, except for an occasional visit by Teresa Carreña, the famous pianist."

"Rojas Paul ruled according to the Constitution, but after him came turbulent times. Dr. Manuel Andueza, a Paisano came next. He tried to rule for second term, but made the mistake of going across the boundary to visit neighboring republic. In his absence, Gen. Joaquin Crespo, called 'El Grand Machete,' the great swordsman, took the reins of the government."

"Seven years later he gave his place to Ignacio Andrade. Later it became known that this man was a native of Colombia. The Constitution forbids the election of a foreign-born President and Crespo headed a revolution. He was killed from ambush."

"Andrade left the country on a visit and the wily Castro stepped into power. Now driven by sickness, he, too, has left the country, and every one interested in the political campaigns of this hotbed of South American revolutions is watching to see what will happen next."

"One thing must be said of Castro, he was always on the job. No one ever caught him napping, and there is a question in the minds of many former residents of Venezuela whether he did not leave the country to bring about the political campaigns of this hotbed of South American revolutions is watching to see what will happen next."

PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

The Board of Public Works has prepared specifications for advertising for bids for the collection and disposal of garbage under the old contract plan; the city has lost $10,000 experimenting with a municipal incinerator.

Traces of the gum-shoe brigade of the Voters League were visible on the carpet when the Council adjourned yesterday; the league seeks to inject some amendments into the charter under the guise of "a gentleman."

Judge Jamison yesterday granted a temporary injunction in the suit of L. Saunders against the city of Belmont Heights.

Judge Conroy yesterday denied a divorce in the contested action of Mrs. Dora M. Rees against John T. Rees on grounds of cruelty.

George M. Chenoweth testified yesterday in Judge Houser's court in his personal-injury suit against the Pacific Electric and Salt Lake Railroad companies.

AT THE CITY HALL.

FINDS PRIVATE CONTRACT BEST.

COLLECTING CITY'S WASTE COSTLY EXPERIMENT.

New Specifications Provide for Abandoning Municipal Project and Returning to Old Contract System. Garbage Haulers Would Cart Away Garbage Gratis.

Inspector Edwards of the department of public works is concerned deeply lest the present garbage contract shall expire before the board is able to make other arrangements for disposing of the city's waste. During the next thirty days at least garbage will be a burning issue at the City Hall.

For three years the city has been collecting and disposing of its waste direct, in place of letting a contractor for garbage collection and disposal. The city rents garbage wagons and teams under contract and supplies the drivers and the incinerator. This plan has proved highly expensive, and the commissioners of the department of public works themselves are doubtful as to whether it has given satisfaction.

Under the specifications which the works board has prepared there is an alternate proposal asking for bids on collecting the garbage by districts and disposing of it; the specifications also ask for bids for supplying wagons, teams and drivers.

In fact, there are so many alternate proposals in the specifications that the Council has declined so far to give the necessary authority for the advertising. If wagons, teams and drivers are to be supplied on contract it means cutting out the city employees now holding their places as city employees, most of them through the favor of some member of the Council.

Three years ago the city secured a municipal incinerator, at an expense of $100,000, for the purpose of burning all the city's waste. Then the city took control of collecting and disposing of garbage. As a municipal venture it has proved a costly experiment, so much so that the commissioners seem to have given up the idea of a municipal incinerator.

The board is now considering a proposal from a private contractor to collect and dispose of the garbage without any contract for the city, provided he receives a monopoly of the garbage collection. He wants ordinances passed which will keep the garbage haulers from shuttling inside the city limits.

This contractor says that he would use the refuse which is food for dogs on a ranch which produces to sell. In this he will probably run counter to the health department, as Health Officer Powers is strongly opposed to feeding garbage to dogs.

While all these considerations are being discussed at the City Hall, the time of the present garbage contract for teams and wagons has almost expired.

Inspector Edwards said last night that something must be done quickly if the city will be left without means for collecting and disposing of its waste.

GUM-SHOE AMENDMENTS.

THE VOTERS' LEAGUE EXPOSED.

Amendments to the right of them, undated by the name of a fictitious manuscript the councilmen foundered all day yesterday over their special election ordinance without being able to reach the subject.

Just as they thought the last was in the business agent of the Voters' League tip-toed in and slipped to the floor a list of amendments to the four non-partisan Councilmen type-written lists of almost enough proposals to form a new city charter. These were passed about noon and the strictures of secrecy; if any one heard that J. B. Irvine of the Voters' League had anything to do with them the charter would be ruined.

Dromgold, Pease, Wallace and Wren are the confidants of Mr. Irvine; the other Councilmen were not to be made wise last night's antipathy to the league should cause them to reject the amendments. There was still another reason for secrecy; the Voters' League couldn't afford to have it known that it is poisoning the minds of the League's preservers, Irvine wanted his amendments presented as coming "from a gentleman."

The amendments themselves proved to be much milder than one would expect from so radical, rattle-headed a source.

Apparently they are drawn because the Voters' League feels that those submitted by the Municipal League will fall to carry. They provide a salary schedule modest, somewhat from that proposed by the Council; the most important amendment is one providing that no ordinance may be adopted the same day it is introduced in the Council, and that it must be printed before it is passed.

City Attorney Hewitt failed to have the election ordinance prepared, ready for presentation as the Council was compelled to adjourn yesterday. In this the City Attorney is not to blame for the Council has loaded him down with amendments sufficient to form a charter of themselves. Yesterday they instructed Mr. Hewitt to prepare a new amendment which will give to the police, fire, water, health, park and library commissioners and the members of the Board of Education $5 each for every session they attend, provided that no more than $6 may be drawn for any one week.

The request for this came from the Civil Service Commission; most of the other commissions are opposed to it. The Council agreed to the amendment along to the people, but several expressed the opinion that it will be unanimously defeated.

Fire Chief J. J. Connelley is preparing to present to the Council for presuming to place the salary of the chief of police above that of the chief of the fire department. The lecture had the desired effect as the Council agreed to amend the salary schedule so that each chief shall receive $4000 a year, provided the voters will stand for it.

COURT'S ORDER.

BARS ELECTION.

TEMPORARY INJUNCTION STOPS SPREADING CITY.

Ambitious Belmont Heights Must Wait While to Absorb Territory.

Proposed Election Postponed—Controversy Between Long Beach and New Municipality.

No election will be held tomorrow at the call of the city of Belmont Heights, to determine whether the inhabitants of a strip of territory between the city of Long Beach and Belmont Heights, favor annexation of their district to Belmont Heights.

After a hearing, yesterday, on the suit brought by Belmont Heights against the city of Long Beach to enjoin the holding of the election, Judge Jamison decided that a sufficient showing of probable cause had been made by the plaintiffs to justify the issuance of a temporary injunction until a final trial of the action. The court, however, provided against possible loss to the defendant by requiring that $2000 bond be given.

Counsel for Saunders stated that his client objected to the annexation election because a resident of the territory in dispute between Belmont Heights and Long Beach, his inclusion in the new city would deprive him of school rights. It was also urged that the annexation of the territory would block the proposed plan of the Highway Commission for the building of a boulevard between Long Beach and Los Angeles, as a portion of the territory in dispute is required for the proposed boulevard. It was urged that the county could spend funds on streets within the municipal limits of Belmont Heights.

Counsel for Belmont Heights said that the proposed annexation election had been legally advertised, that annexation would provide for the plaintiff in the case, and that the territory was desired by Belmont Heights to provide for possible annexation to Los Angeles in future.

The strip of land in dispute between Belmont Heights and Long Beach is a zigzag section about eleven miles long and from 100 feet to 300 feet wide. It extends from the Long Beach line along the northeast city limits of Belmont Heights, skirting the limits of Long Beach to Spring street, and American avenue. The inhabitants of the district are few and are said to be about equally divided in their sentiments on annexation to either of the two cities between which they lie.

The real issue of the trial was the fact that Long Beach annexed a strip of ocean frontage that Belmont Heights wished to annex. Then Belmont Heights, being unable to expand its territory, decided to annex an irregularly shaped strip of land on Long Beach, opening a way for possible future annexation of Naples.

SILENCE REPELS.

WOULD NOT KISS WIFE.

Growing coldness in her husband's attitude to her was said by Mrs. Dora M. Rees, in Judge Conroy's court yesterday, to be the reason why she left him last March. Mrs. Rees sought a divorce from John T. Rees on grounds of cruelty. Rees contested the suit and made similar charges.

After hearing testimony the court ordered that Mrs. Rees should be examined by a physician to determine if she is in such ill-health that an action for separate maintenance should be granted. The court continued the case, suggesting that counsel get together and arrange for the examination of Mrs. Rees.

Mrs. Rees said that her husband had been drinking and was violent to her for days at a time unless he was drunk. She said that he had been drinking and was violent to her for days at a time unless he was drunk.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

RECEIVERSHIP.

RECEIVERSHIP. P. A. Bischoff and others, yesterday filed in the Superior Court a suit against the Ocean View Cemetery. R. Donaldson Brown, W. B. Compton, and others, to secure the appointment of a receiver for the corporation and to recover from other defendants, for the corporation, over $25,000 damages. The plaintiffs assert that they are stockholders and say that at the incorporation of the concern in August, 1904, Brown and other defendants entered into a conspiracy by which they secured $25,000 shares of stock without consideration. It is alleged that Brown turned in to the corporation a mortgage dated of realty on which payments were made by the corporation and that the corporation's affairs have been manipulated to the loss of the stockholders by the defendants.

WILL FILED. Frank Abbott, as executor of the will of Mrs. M. Reed Abbott who died in Los Angeles November 21, leaving a $15,000 estate to her children and grandchildren, yesterday filed his will in the Superior Court for probate.

FORGERY. A jury in Judge Wilbur's court yesterday found Charles Jackson guilty of forging J. T. Smith's signature on a $1 note to the Keybank Loan Company last October. Jackson will be sentenced Friday morning.

GRAND JURY. Morning and afternoon sessions were held yesterday by the grand jury, which meets again Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Witnesses examined yesterday were Dr. L. M. Powers of the city Board of Health; Albert J. Bradish, Patrolman Sam McKenhe, Harrison Frank Mapes and W. W. Glen; Alfred Tridant, Theodore Lamb, Frank Casey, T. J. Cook, W. H. Rice, Deputy Dist. Atty. Joseph Ford, Mrs. Clara Moore, Cole, Humphreys and McDowell.

CONTEMPT. C. Bassini, who was committed to the County Jail last Friday for refusing to answer questions in the case of the mother of the young woman who met a tragic death, Saturday night, was ready to testify. Bassini was asked whether he had placed any property in the hands of his counsel after his arrest. He said that he had not. He also said that he is not a party to the case and is not interested in the outcome of the trial. He was committed to the County Jail for contempt of court.

COURT ADJOURNS. Judge Bordwell yesterday afternoon adjourned court, that he might attend the funeral of Mrs. A. Trager, of Department No. Nine. Mrs. Trager died Monday morning of tuberculosis and was interred at Rosecliff Cemetery, yesterday afternoon. Funeral services were held at Rosecliff at 2 o'clock, and were attended by Judge Bordwell, and all other officers of the court.

PERJURY. The preliminary examination of W. S. Young, charged with perjury in the case of the mother of the young woman who met a tragic death, Saturday night, was held yesterday by Judge Bordwell. Young was committed to the County Jail for perjury.

CHECK PASSING. Under Sheriff Howell of Merced county arrived yesterday to take to Merced Ben Peckerman, wanted on charges of passing worthless checks. Peckerman is said to have secured $100 by passing three bad drafts on Merced business men.

GRAND LARCENY. Owing to the death of the complaining witness, D. H. Lafferty, Judge Wilbur yesterday, on motion of the District Attorney, dismissed on one occasion when in answer to an inquiry by her, he told her that he did not think her a great dancer and singer. She also denied that she had neglected her family duties. She said that Rees is in the control of a demon, and that she is sometimes obliged to use force against him because of this demoniacal control.

Asked if she could support her two children, her answer in rambling way that she could do so by her great gifts as a singer and dancer. Her testimony was rambling and incoherent, and she said she has long been sick. Rees said that for a year before his death she had been in a state of mental derangement, and that he had never before made the admission of regard for his two children.

RAISES ARM.

UNDERGOES SHARP QUIZ.

George M. Chenoweth, salesman for the Pacific Coast Electric Company, underwent a sharp examination in Judge Houser's court yesterday at the second trial of his $25,000 damage suit against the Pacific Electric and Salt Lake Railroad companies for alleged injuries to his right shoulder in a collision at Macy street last January.

Asked by defendant's counsel to show just how fully he can use his right arm, Chenoweth raised it outward from his body almost on a level with his shoulder. Then he raised his forearm so that with his fingers he could touch the crown of his head. He made many grimaces, however, and said that his shoulder is so stiff that freer movements of his arm are impossible.

So great was the interest in Chenoweth's movements, that the judge left his bench, counsel crowded about the witness stand and the jury leaned forward in their seats to observe the demonstration.

After Judge Houser ordered a retrial of Chenoweth's suit, following the testimony of three jurors Tuesday morning, that they had seen Chenoweth use his right arm in the collision, the man was placed under anaesthetics and examined by Drs. K. B. Bettis, Shurtliff, McGowan, Bryant and Cochran.

Friends of the defendant corporation said that the man's shoulder is not injured, and that his arm is in no better condition than it was before the collision. The physicians will be placed on the stand Friday, as well as C. D. Hubbard, P. W. Cline and A. J. Hubbard, the three jurors in the previous suit, who testified as to Chenoweth's use of his alleged injured member.

Chenoweth denied that he used his right hand to draw his purse from his pocket in a restaurant Monday evening, but said that he had used it in paying his check, cutting his hair, and eating his food. He said that he had used his left hand to draw his hat, and while admitting that he can write with his alleged injured member.

BIG SUM DEMANDED.

Inventor of Dredger Seeks to Recover Large Amount from Long Beach Shipbuilding Company.

The Craig Shipbuilding Company of Long Beach and Augusta, Me., is made defendant in an action for trespass filed in the United States Circuit Court, yesterday, Alphonso B. Bowers of San Francisco, the plaintiff, seeks royalties of $15,000 on each dredger made by the defendant since 1873, the alleged date of his patent.

Though the complaint does not set forth the number of dredgers constructed by the defendants it is believed the total amount of damages prayed for will reach several hundred thousand dollars.

Attorneys Miller and White of San Francisco, in behalf of the plaintiff, assert that there is nothing in the dredging device in 1873, and obtained the first patent on it at that time.

They claim that the Craig Shipbuilding Company used the patent at its works in Augusta, Me., and also in its Long Beach works.

A copy of the complaint was served on the defendant by Deputy United States Marshal J. J. Craig, president of the Craig plant, said last night.

who can afford to do so should remember that the mining industry is one of the chief sources of wealth in this region and they can do much for California in directing attention to the great wealth stowed away in her mountain ranges.

Rich Amalia Mine Opened.
The Provident Gold Mining Company, which recently purchased the old Amalia mine at Paris, Kern county, California, has completed the erection of a twenty-five-ton cyanide plant, fitted to run now in operation, and is mining ore which runs as high as $40 to the ton.

According to the officials of the Manhattan Securities Company, which is financing this mine, a shipment of twelve tons recently made to the Selby Smelters at San Francisco, showed returns of $2700. The company will increase its equipment in order to open up new mining areas and the capacity of the mill will be increased to 100 tons.

Busy in Yosemite Park.
The Yosemite Park Mining Syndicate owning several claims and 100 acres of placer ground four miles from the Hiltz Cove mines in Yosemite Park, California, is pushing development on the Klondike vein and is down to a depth of fifty feet, working a small force, new building cabin for the winter camp, and will continue the work on this vein which is showing up in better shape than the balance.

The company is also prospecting the Coldstream at a depth of fifteen feet and has uncovered an ore vein at three feet which averages $155. It is also doing some prospecting on the surface of the Marx with promising results.
This company contemplates the erection of a ten-ton mill the early part of the coming year.

Plant for Arizona Mine.
The material for the stamp mill and cyanide plant which the Big Stick Gold Mining Company is erecting at its mine on the Santa Maria River in Arizona, is now being delivered at the mine and the work of installing will be carried out. The plans call for a forty-ton stamp mill, of which twenty stamps are to be installed immediately. A cyanide plant of 100 tons daily capacity will be erected for the treatment of ore from the mines of this company. The ore, while comparatively of low grade, according to reports, is found in large quantities, and the cyanide plant will add economical treatment.

Movements of Mining Men.
W. A. McNaughton, operating the Ready Relief mine in the Julian district, came up from San Diego a few days ago. He has contracted 1000 tons of ore for milling, and will soon erect a mill at the mine.

Henry Mason of New York City, who is mining extensively in the Columbia Mountains of New Mexico, arrived at the Hollenbeck yesterday.
Stuart Grant, a mill man of the Calumet and Arizona company at Douglas, Ariz., is at the Hollenbeck.
James F. Andrews, a retired Wall-street operator of high financial standing, is visiting friends in Los Angeles and vicinity. In a few days, in company with Dr. S. M. Stoum, will inspect the progress of development at the Edna and Desert Chief mines in San Bernardino county, north of Dana, in which both are largely interested.

Charles E. Sprague, managing editor of the Goldfield News, is but just back from Los Angeles. It is but just to say that Mr. Sprague has done as much for the Goldfield News as any man in the West. This is his record at Goldfield, as was Colorado, where he formerly conducted the Mining Investor. As such he is entitled to the respect and admiration of every one who wants to see the mining industry conducted on legitimate lines.

Police on the Watch for Union Walking Delegates Charged With Tearing Down Posters and An-ouncements Which Do Not Bear the Totem Imprint of Slavery.

In an attempt to coerce business men and corporations into giving all their jobs to union printers, the totemites have resorted to their customary cowardly tactics. Posters issued by the Santa Fe Railroad, the Cawston Ostrich
Farm and the Yosemite Mineral Water Company have been torn down and either destroyed or mailed to the advertisers.

Some time ago the Yosemite Mineral Water Company received a letter from the secretary of the local Typographical Union, warning it not to use any printing that lacked the totem. No attention was paid to the threat, beyond a courteous reply stating that the company would use its best judgment in the selection of its printers.

Since then thousands of the company's posters and dodgers have been torn from buildings and poles. Quantities of them have been made into bundles and sent to the company, with a sticker bearing the customary warning against patronizing non-union printers.

The Santa Fe has a number of places about the city where its publicity men hang bundles of pamphlets relating to different trips over its lines. These have been ruthlessly destroyed or mailed to the railroad offices.

The Cawston Ostrich Farm has had the same experience, but in spite of the veiled threats, has not changed its printer. The police have been notified to watch for the unionite vandals, and prosecutions will follow when evidence is secured.

John Griffin, a young man of Port-ville, was brought over to the County Jail in this city yesterday and will be examined on an insanity charge. He has become violent frequently lately and has threatened to do himself and others bodily harm.

John Coffee Hays, president of the Mt. Whitney Power Company, left Sunday morning for New York, where he will be married on December 2, to Miss Eva Harwood of that city. They will make their home in Visalia.

SUES FOR DAMAGES.
J. F. Hutchinson has brought suit in the Superior Court against the California Farmlands Company, a Tulare concern, for $200. Hutchinson asserts he was damaged to that extent through the failure of the company to furnish him with water as he alleged was promised him when he purchased land from the defendant some time ago.

The appraisalment has been filed in the Superior Court upon the estate of the late George H. Boddan, a former well-known real estate agent of Visalia. The property, consisting of land in Tulare, Kern and Kings counties, is valued at $11,100.

M. L. Weaver, City Engineer of Visalia, has prepared plans which have been accepted for a sewer system at Coalinga. The Trustees of that city have decided to call an election to vote $15,000 to sewer the city, also a $10,000 bond issue for street improvements and $5000 for fire equipment.

The funeral of H. C. Higbee, a well-known pioneer and fruit man of Visalia, who died at his home near Visalia last week, took place yesterday. Mr. Higbee was one of the most successful ranchers of this section.

WANT A "BOAKER."
Light showers of rain fell in this part of the county last night and today. It was general over the county and comes at a very opportune time.
Farmers want a good soaking rain so that they can begin plowing, and cattlemen would welcome it as it would insure plenty of green feed.

The appraisements for Kings and Tulare counties of the estate of the late George McCann, a pioneer of Tulare county, who died some weeks ago, have been filed. They show that at the time of his death he was possessed of property in Kings county valued at $32-26.72. His Tulare county property is valued at $23,061.77, making a total value of $55,328.49.

The hearing of the third of three cases brought by the Diamond Oil Company against the San Jose Hall-board and the Astor Land and Cattle Company (two against the former and one against the latter) has been concluded.

HOLIDAY SPECIALS

IN CALIFORNIA WINES

THE OIL INDUSTRY. STANDARD, THE BIG "WILDCAT."

It Ventures Into Districts
Where Others Fear.

Independents Without Faith
in Monterey.

Daisy Has No Oil and Stockholders Nervous.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE BY THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—The Standard has two rigs in operation in the Altamont field, which is at the summit of the hills lying between Livermore and Tracy, or rather between the Livermore and the San Joaquin Valleys, and a station on the Miles branch of the Southern Pacific. One rig is a rotary and the other a standard. The first is at work at a point about one and a half miles southeast from Altamont station, on what is known as the Leonardo ranch in section 27, T. 7, R. 2. The standard rig is located about a mile north-east of the station on the Nicholson ranch. It is claimed that the company is to put in one or two more rigs at other points in the field. It is proposed, in this way, to give the locality a test on a big scale.

The company has under tie-up a large acreage, which looks good to its officials, even if it does not look good to others. The country thereabout shows itself to be pretty broken in good-sized blocks, but not shivered. Oil indications are plentiful, even to numerous seeps. The company realizes the somewhat (to itself) precariousness of the formation, but nevertheless, has faith (with works) that it will get oil.

A few practical oil men believe the locality is an oil field, and a few do not say anything, while the great bulk who have looked over the country, pronounce emphatically against it.

Several attempts have been made by promoters to work up a company to drill in the locality, but so far every effort appears to be unsuccessful except the Daisy, whose location is over the hill near Tracy. This company is down about 1200 feet, and no oil yet, but an abundance of water and some gas. It is stated that "their feet are getting a little cool."

Indication is there will be nothing done by independent wild-catting till the Standard proves the country, therefore the disposition on their part is to go slow, and in the meantime procure and hold lands for eventual use.

The Standard is fast gaining the right to the reputation of being the great wild-catting rig. It is now operating between thirty-five and forty rigs in the State, and the most of this number are in the San Joaquin Valley. The Standard department has everybody from Texas to crown block on the jump.

As to what has been done on the big Daisy ranch purchase in San Benito and Monterey counties, it is stated by oil men who come from that way, that all efforts to get oil there have proven futile—that granite has been contacted wherever the drill has penetrated.

THEIR ROMANCE JOINS THE EAST AND WEST.

Married in the North.

Assemblyman J. P. Transue of Los Angeles and Miss Nellie Ely Douglas of Utica, N. Y., who were wed last evening in San Francisco, to the surprise of the legislators' friends in this city.

Assemblyman J. P. Transue of this city, Speaker pro tem, at the last regular session of the Assembly, and just elected for his fourth consecutive term in the lower house of the Legislature, took his friends by surprise by getting married last night in San Francisco. The bride was Miss Nellie Ely Douglas of Utica, N. Y., and Mr. Transue met her three years ago while on a visit in the East. They were introduced by Mrs. Joan H. Foley of this city, whose husband is an intimate friend of Mr. Transue.

From all accounts, it was a case of love at first sight, and there was no cessation of the romance after the principals lost sight of each other for more than two years; with the exception of a brief visit to the East, where Mr. Transue, who had done his assignment, had held the land without any contest. No attempt was made to take possession of the land until the couple returned to the State, where they were met by the Legislature, where he made a record for himself a little less than two years.

The few Los Angeles acquaintances of the bride say she is a woman of refinement and culture, and they look forward with pleasure to her arrival next month, at the end of the honeymoon which the couple will enjoy in the North. Mr. and Mrs. Transue will not be at home, however, until after the adjournment of the Legislature, possibly in March.

In addition to his duties as member of the Legislature, Mr. Transue is chairman of the State Building and Loan Commission.

Sugar a Good Disinfectant.

The old custom of burning sugar in sick rooms to sweeten the air—a custom tolerantly smiled on but not approved by the doctors—has been revived. It appears, the high sanction of science. Prof. Tribert of the Pasteur Institute (Paris) took into his head to make a few experiments. He recently demonstrated, "that burning sugar (71.16 grains) was found to destroy, one of the most powerful antiseptic gases known. Five grams of sugar (71.16 grains) were burned in a closed vessel containing a solution of typhus, tuberculosis, cholera, smallpox, etc., were placed in the bell in open-glass tubes and within half an hour all the microbes were dead. If sugar is burned in a closed vessel containing putrefied meat, or the contents of rotten eggs, the offensive odor disappears at once. The popular faith in the disinfecting qualities of burnt sugar appears, therefore, to be well founded."—(Hartford Courant.

LOPES WITH HIS FATHER SE

Mr. and Mrs. W. Beach.

W. BEACH is still trying to locate his 16-year-old daughter, Adelaide Beach McMullin, who left Los Angeles with her husband ten days after he had passed several worthless checks.

According to Beach, his son-in-law, Mr. McMullin, secured $100 in cash giving forged checks in payment for a house and grocery bills. With the cash he bought transportation for himself and his bride, apparently for Paris. Since they left, Beach has received no word from them. He has sent out for rent, electric light bills, gas, that were sent to him through the checks given by McMullin, he says. The checks were reported to the police. Mrs. Beattie McMullin, mother of the young man, squared her account by making good the amounts.

Another complaint has come up, concerning a get-rich-quick scheme that Beach had been a victim of. The scheme was a violation of the law, which was conducted by McMullin. This has been brought to the attention of the postal authorities and they are investigating.

Beach advertised in local papers, that he was a man of family, who had been successful in life, and that a small sum of money he would loan to those who would help him to locate his daughter. He has been successful in this, and has been able to locate her.

Mr. Beach admits that he consented to the marriage of his daughter, four months ago, although he was opposed to it. He says she is large for her age, and is like a girl 22 years old. He is now in the East, and is trying to locate her.

Beach is still trying to locate his daughter, who has been missing for several months. He is now in the East, and is trying to locate her.

LOPES WITH HUBBY; FATHER SEEKS GIRL.

BLIND LOVE.

BEACH is still trying to locate his 16-year-old daughter, Adeline, who left Los Angeles with her husband ten days ago. He had passed several worth-while offers to her, but she had refused them.

Beach, his son-in-law, secured $100 in cash and forged checks in payment of her and grocery bills. With the money and the checks, he sought transportation for himself and his bride, apparently for parts of the trip. Beach has been told that the girl was given by McMillin, he says, and the checks were reported to him. Mrs. Beattie McMillin, the mother of the young man, secured by making good the amounts.

Beach has come up, convinced that he has been deceived. He has been a victim of a scheme that has been a violation of the law, which was conducted by McMillin. This has been brought to the attention of the authorities, and they are investigating.

Mr. and Mrs. McMullin, who have apparently left for parts unknown. The father of the girl-wife, who is but a little over sixteen years of age, is trying to locate her.

"McMullin has worked as a plumber, electrician and telephone man. He lived at No. 419 South Lakeshore avenue."

NO PROBLEMS HERE.

Agricultural College, Amherst, Mass. Clifford Pinchot, chief forester, was detained in Washington, and Walter H. Page and John Barrett were unable to come West. Accompanying the party was Dr. E. W. Allen of the Department of Agriculture and assistant director in the office of the experimental station. C. J. Blanchard of the Reclamation Service, Dr. C. W. Stiles, a surgeon of national reputation, connected with the Marine Hospital corps at Washington, and J. Rice of Washington, the official stenographer.

The commissioners and associates arrived in Los Angeles at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, over the Southern Pacific, from Tucson. They occupied the private car "Ascot," and were in the personal charge of railroad officials, who are planning the itinerary through the territory covered by the Southern Pacific.

SCOPE OF THE WORK.

After registering at the Angelus, the visitors were given an automobile ride about the city, as guests of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Wallace, veteran newspaper and magazine proprietor, was spokesman for the party.

"These meetings are only a part of our work," he said. "We have sent out 60,000 circulars, and are expecting answers at the rate of about 2000 a day. The Census Bureau will tabulate these answers for future reference. The object of this commission is to study conditions in rural districts. In a broad way, we are investigating everything that interests the tenants of the farms. We try to learn how the sanitary and social conditions are, and seek suggestions from the more intelligent class of agriculturists."

During our trip we have visited Maryland, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Texas, Arizona and New Mexico. After leaving California, a portion of the commission will go by way of Seattle and the north, meeting the rest at Omaha, where a hearing will be granted that is expected to interest all that Middle West section.

"Our meetings are interesting. We are regarded as the personal representatives of the President, and we are given various confidential messages to him from many farmers. They have told us many times what they want, and in some localities conditions are certainly pitiable."

MANY COMPLAINTS.

"In sections of the South, the soil has become impoverished through a long succession of planting to the one staple—cotton. Tenants are forced to raise this crop for it is the only product on which they can get supplies in advance from the storekeepers. The rent takes perhaps half of what they make, and most of the rest goes for food."

"Wherever we have held hearings, we have heard many complaints. All say that country homes are not what they should be. All agree that the hope of the future lies in better education in country schools, and in better ideals of country life."

"We have found an almost unanimous demand for rural telephone, postal savings banks and parcels post. There is a such complaint of the inadequate supply of labor. Farmers tell us the quality is not all good. We found the Pueblo Indian highly regarded as a day laborer in the Southwest. Perhaps next to him comes the Mexican. In the South, the laborers are negroes and poor whites."

Mr. Wallace has made a study of agricultural life for a quarter of a century and says he has tried to explain some of the modern ideas of agriculture through the columns of his journal. He has much faith in the work of agricultural colleges and believes there is a great opportunity for the educated young man on the rich farms of the West.

OPIUM PIPE AS BLUDGEON.

Upland Chinaman Terribly Beaten by Fellow Countrymen—Colonial Dinner Attracts.

UPLAND, Nov. 25.—Charles Yee appeared before Justice Crane yesterday morning and asked for the arrest of Fong Mon Sick, whom he charges with assault with a deadly weapon. Yee asserts that Sick attempted to rob him, and when he resisted, inflicted terrible punishment upon him, using for this purpose a heavy opium pipe.

Yee presented a gory appearance when he appeared before the justice to make the complaint. Sick at once left the city, going to Ontario, where he caught the overland train to Los Angeles. The officers were notified, and Sick was arrested as he left the train there. Marshal Sawyer went to the city and returned with the prisoner. Yee bears a good reputation locally, while Sick is said to be a bad man.

COLONIAL SUPPER.

The Colonial Supper, given under the auspices of the Woman's Literary Club last evening at the clubroom, was attended by a large number. This was one of the few nights of the club year when open house is held by the ladies. A splendid programme of vocal and instrumental solos, recitations, the Oxford minute, etc., was rendered, following the supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard F. Palmer of this city announce the marriage of their niece, Miss Bertha Irene Stevens, to Austin Walline, a well-known rancher of this city. The wedding took place here this afternoon. Contractor Stanton of Long Beach is getting material on the ground for the improvement to be made on Third avenue. Work is to proceed immediately following Thanksgiving.

HOLLYWOOD WINS.

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 25.—The Hollywood team won the debate tonight between representatives of the local Union High School and Harvard Military College, Los Angeles. The question was: "Resolved, that the present protective system should be abandoned." The affirmative was taken by the locals, who were given 204 points against 182 scored by the upholders of the negative. The judges were Prof. Hadley of Occidental College, Prof. Sumner of Pomona College, and Matheson D. Jones of Los Angeles.

labor. You simply rub Fels-Naptha soap on the clothes, put them in the tub, just covered with water and let them stay there for thirty minutes.

In this half hour, Fels-Naptha does everything that boiling and hard-rubbing can do and does it better.

The woman who once does a wash with Fels-Naptha soap, according to the directions on the wrapper, will never go back to the before-Fels-Naptha-was-invented way of washing.

Insist on getting the soap in the red and green wrapper.

GREEN AND RED LIGHTS GLOW.

HOTEL OPENING PROVES MOST DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.

Representative Gathering Present. Driver of Wagon Thrown Twenty Feet Up in Air and Fifty Feet from Spot Where His Vehicle Is Struck by Santa Fe Train.

Office of The Times, No. 25 S. Raymond Ave. PASADENA, Nov. 25.—Hotel Green was opened last night for the winter season. Nearly 400 were present at dinner. It was a representative gathering. Local people and many of the regular winter visitors from the East thus paid their respects to J. H. Holmes, owner and manager.

Probably no affair in the history of the city has proved more delightful. Promptly at 6 o'clock the hotel was illuminated, and once more the green and red lights, the colors of the hotel, glowed forth from the edge of the roof and windows and doorways. Flowers were to be found in pleasing arrangement everywhere, and the rooms and corridors proved more than ever attractive after redecoration. The service was excellent.

During the evening selections from grand opera on the autophonic proved pleasing. The opening ball, which followed the dinner, was attended by many of Pasadena's fairest society women.

Mayor Thomas Early sat at the head of a table of representatives of the different civic bodies. When asked afterward if the future Mayor of the city was around the board, he replied, "I hope so."

The Tournament of Roses Association and Pasadena Lodge of Elks were represented at festive tables.

Another table of social attraction was the one at which were seated Mr. and Mrs. William W. Stimpson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Couple Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Macey, Arthur Dowdworth, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell, Miss Hannah Nevill and Roy Macomber.

Among other notable prominent people present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Linnard, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neustad, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. William Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Rider, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stimpson, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Durand, Mr. and Mrs. Walters, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Willett, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Snowball, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Andrews and Madam Andrews of Los Angeles and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Souder and a party of friends.

THROWN HIGH AND FAR. Thrown twenty feet high and fifty feet from the spot where his wagon was struck by a Santa Fe engine, John S. Mundorf, aged 44 years, lies in the Pasadena Hospital tonight with the chances in favor of his recovery, although he struck full on his head after the flight through the air.

Mundorf drives for Charles & Post, the contractors who have the station watering for the city. He is deaf and it is believed did not hear the noise of the approaching train when he drove on the railroad tracks at the California-street crossing yesterday morning. Witnesses say the bell did not sound.

Whatever the cause, the veteran teamster drove onto the track. The horses drawing the watering cart crossed safely but the stationer, at the end of the cart, making splinters of it.

As the collision came, Mundorf fell into the air, going upward and outward until he was half a hundred feet from his overturned wagon. He was picked up for dead, with his face scratched and bruised almost beyond recognition.

Taken to the hospital, the stricken man speedily recovered his senses and an examination failed to disclose any injuries save abrasions and bruises. Mr. Mundorf is an old resident of Pasadena, living at No. 161 South Raymond avenue. He has two sons in the city.

OLD RIVALS TO MEET. Unless heavy rain is falling this afternoon, Throp and High School football teams will meet in the annual Thanksgiving game here for the championship of Pasadena. Throp, after their defeat of last year at the hands of the High School team, the Throp contingent is serious about the game.

TAFT WON'T COME HERE.

Notifies San Pedro Chamber of Commerce He's Unable to Visit Coast.

SAN PEDRO, Nov. 25.—Commercial bodies throughout Southern California recently joined in sending telegrams to President-elect Taft inviting him to this section. To the invitation sent by the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce, the following reply was received today, dated Hot Springs, Va., November 19, 1918: "In behalf of Mr. Taft, I beg to acknowledge receipt of your telegram of the 19th inst., inviting him to San Pedro, and in reply, to say that he does not expect to visit California in the near future, and will not therefore be able to visit San Pedro. I thank you for inviting him."

This is signed by Fred W. Carpenter, private secretary.

POMONA, Nov. 25.—Following the discovery of a cache of 400 worth of furs, silks, lace curtains and firearms in the hills northwest of Ganessa Park, some boys at play found the lumber piles at the yards of the National Lumber Company, east of Elmina street and between First street and the railroad tracks, found a cache of about three dozen boxes of fine cigars, boxes bearing the labels and brand of Cuba, being covered with Spanish printing.

The cigars are either contraband or have been manufactured by people in this country who have been trying to deceive purchasers into the belief that they are securing rare smuggled goods. Instead of the domestic article.

According to Constable Shanker who in company with Detective Hosick, found the cache, the National Lumber Company, which is located on the east side of the city, has been operating for some time in the area.
